

HUMANITY'S LAST BREATH

STRUCTURES COLLAPSE

Kristoffer Nilsson, Marcus Johansson, Stefan Bengtsson, Buster Odeholm and Marcus Hultqvist

Humanity's Last Breath was formed in 2009 when drummer Buster Odeholm and guitarist Kristoffer Nilsson got together and wrote some deathcore songs. They later recruited bassist Stefan Bengtsson and vocalist Marcus Hultqvist from their old bands Justice Shall Prevail and Dissimulate. The following year they released their first EP as a band, Reanimated by Hate, which was received well and got 8/10 by the Swedish rock magazine Close-Up. In the beginning of 2011 the band released their second EP, Structures Collapse, and recruited Marcus Johansson as their second guitarist. This time around the music wasn't as much deathcore as it were a blend of different styles of metal like death metal and djent. During the summer Humanity's Last Breath got to play at Sweden's biggest metal festival Metaltown together with bands like Meshuggah and Bring me the Horizon.

PRODUCT OF WAR

I'm just a part of of their political games, Fighting a war in his fucking name, I can't - I can't - Figure out why I'm here, a tainted soul of slavery.

Skull cracks beneath my fucking feet,
I can't see the point of this meaningless war, They've misinterpreted a worthless book just to Opress the weak, Religion is to blame covering up their true meaning.

Count down your seconds
Your time has come
Your bound to meet the creator so (bow down)
You product of war, your life is meaningless
Do what your told you have no choice.

Covered in blood, I'm engulfed by flames, i cower in fear, am I dying
The ground start to break and I finally meet my creator

Skulls crack beneath my feet!

Covered in blood of the innocents I can smell My own burning flesh, I'm screaming in pain, inhaling the ashes of the Unborn that I've slain.

I can't feel pain

Count down your seconds
Your time has come
Your bound to meet the creator so (bow down)
You product of war, your life is meaningless
Do what your told you have no choice.

DECEIVEMENT

Putting a gun to your head, shooting you from point blank range
The brain matter ejects from the back of your head

Blood splatter stains your white dress,
The white dress you wore on that beautiful day
But all that has change, but all that has change.

PUT A GUN TO YOUR FUCKING HEAD!

How you drove me to this is beyond my own fucking senses.
You drove me to a life of disbelieves.

A silvercasing drops to the floor a bullet Penetrates your thick fucking skull You'll tell your lies no more!

Your decievement will be paid for,
You'll regret that you ever crossed my road,
You will pay with your life you fucking worthless whore

The only thing you'll ever get the taste of is my clenched fist against your fucking jaw

GO!

(why, why me)

The blood splatter stains your dress that you wore on that beautiful day
The blood splatter stains your dress that you
wore on that beautiful day
But all that has change, but all that has change

I have found that the only way is for you to pay

The only thing you'll ever get the taste of is my clenched fist against your fucking jaw
The only thing you'll ever get the taste of is my clenched fist against your fucking jaw

BALEFUL

You fed me up with another bunch of lies You dug your own grave and I'm here to take it all back.

Why can't I feel anymore
I won't regret this ever Even if you scream my name
Your life will cease to exist

Face to ground
Covered in blood
The look in your eyes
Is what I despise
Seeing your face fills me with rage
As i open your chest to uncover your blackened heart.

Satisfying my needs in any way possible
Tie her hands
Slit her throat
Rape her senseless

Face to the ground
Covered in blood
The look in your eyes
Is what I despise

(I won't regret this,
I won't regret this)

You can try but you will not win
You can't beat me
Spread your legs Open wide so I can push it in!

You can try but you will not win
You can't beat me,

See who's smiling now Face down in the dirt Dig deep, dig wide Now you're one
With the ground

Fuck

Satisfying my needs in any way possible
Tie her hands
Slit her throat

RIGHTIOUS DEATH

I will eradicate every fucking feeling you got!
Make you empty inside!
Make you my slave!
My deeds are good, I got one intention and that is to please my mind.

I'm sick and tired of being pushed around.
Now I'm standing my fucking ground.
I will make you twist in agony and pain, Make you do every single fucking thing that I say!

A knife in the fucking back I'm losing track of my morality and values.
Tightening the grip around her throat your pupils dilating feeling your life fade away

I decide what's right I decide what's wrong!
you had your chance,
So take your goodbyes,
I decide your life,
I decide your fate,
So save your fucking goodbyes!

A light in the other end of the tunnel, a glimpse of light at the end horizon.
My deeds are good,
I got one intention, and that is to take back what is mine.

You are slowly fading away, your eyes are getting heavy
I hope to fucking god that you will rot in hell!

You are slowly fading away, your eyes are
getting heavy

You are slowly fading away, your eyes are
getting heavy
I hope to fucking god that you will rot in hell!

THE AFTERMATH

Why did I still try when there was nothing left.
Why did I keep trying when you pushed me away I don't even care that you have nothing left to say I can still repair this even though you're dead

I will never forget that you turned your back, why, maybe we will see each other when it all goes black

As our lives comes to an end somewhere else a new begins forget the wrongs forget the rights forget all of our meaningless fights.

I can't feel pain.

As bridges fall and forest burns what we had will not return.
As darkness falls and all turns black we'll be together hand in hand

As bridges fall and forest burns what we had will not return.
As darkness falls and all turns black we'll be together hand in hand

INEVITABLE

Inevitable

The end draws near, you're all filled with fear.
On your knees praying your prayers
Drop dead one by one your god has abandoned you

The trees start to wither and you're frozen where you stand
A chill down your spine, a touch by the dead
The trees start to wither and you're frozen where you stand
A chill down your spine, a touch by the dead

You believers brought this upon us all,
You believers brought this upon us all!

Everything you've ever loved is dead and buried,
All your friends are dead, apocalypse is here
Everything you've ever loved is dead and buried,
All your friends are dead, apocalypse is here
Everything you've ever loved is dead and buried,
All your friends are dead, apocalypse is here
Everything you've ever loved is dead and buried,
All your friends are dead
No one will survive this plague, no one will survive
this plague

DROP DEAD

Everything you've ever loved is dead and buried,
All your friends are dead, apocalypse is here
Everything you've ever loved is dead and buried,
No one will survive this plague, no one will survive
this plague
No one will survive this plague, no one will survive
this plague

On your knees again, save your fucking prayers, now close your eyes.
On your knees again, save your fucking prayers for you're already dead.

The end draws near, you're all filled with fear.
On your knees praying your prayers
Drop dead one by one your god has abandoned you your god has abandoned you!

NEVER ENDING CYCLE

The world as we know will be laid to waste,
no one will be spared from not the angels and not your gods We are the final to resist the attack, citys fall forests burns time's running out now when the dead walks the earth

We have brought this plague upon ourselves,
distant scream from beyond, there is no chance to survive

We are the last resistance!
Push them back to the grave!

The world as we know it will be laid to waste,
distant screams from beyond there is no chance to survive!

We have brought this plague upon ourselves!
We are the last stand!
We are the resistance!
We are the last stand!

The world as we know will be laid to
waste,
no one will be spared from not the angels and not your god!

We are the last resistance!
Push them back to the grave!

We are the last resistance,
Push them back to the grave

You'll be fucking dead!

KNEELING IN FRONT OF THE GRAVE

Relationships are nothing but psychical torture, it tears your fucking mind apart!
It has made me a cynical person and this time I'll rip you the fuck apart! x5

If you don't pay I won't let you rest, so fucking pay me or I won't let you rest! Tables turn and now you rot and you won't come back to me, limb for limb I promise you we'll take it slow from here.

Your nothing, your useless, just a waste of my time
the only good time in my life was when you died.
Buried beneath my feet I shed no tears,
only a grin on my face is what remains.

Your nothing, your useless, just a waste of
my time
the only good time in my life was when you
died.
Buried beneath my feet I shed no tears,
only a grin on my face is what remains.

Your nothing, your useless, just a waste of
my time
the only good time in my life was when you
died.
Buried beneath my feet I shed no tears,
only a grin on my face is what remains.

You are nothing to me!
Fuck your life you bitch!

Before I saw darkness now I see the light the life I spent with you was just a waste of fucking my time!

INTERLUDE

(Instrumental)

WE DIDN'T PLAN THE ESCAPE

A man strapped to a gurney, intravenous cannulae inserted in both arms.

He gets a shot of sodium thiopental, poison spreads like a plague through his veins

He gets a shot of sodium thiopental, the poison spreads like a plague through his veins,
he get rendered unconscious, releaved from the pain.

He gets a shot of potassium chloride heart pounds slower and it's time for him to die, body goes into cardiac arrest hypoxia increases he just took his last breath.

He gets a shot of potassium chloride heart pounds
slower and it's time for him to die.
No one will remember his soulless carcass.

Buried 12 feet under, maggots feasting on his flesh, no cermonie, no memorial, no flowers spread infront of the grave.

Reanimated by hate

A tight grip around her throat, slowly feeling the larnyx getting crushed, her eyes darkens as she gasps for her last breath, it's getting dark and she's finally dead, dead.

I regret nothing!
I regret nothing!

She got away, far more lightly than the others

I'll fucking do it again!

INGESTED

Fear thy neighbour, but fear me more!

Placing the first incision close to your heart, feasting on the pain and suffering, unable to move, unable to speak, you are looking for answers that doesn't exist.

But I can see in your eyes how you scream when I tear you apart piece by piece.
My acts are justified, my acts are good, this is for all the fucked up things you've put me through.

By sacrificing you I'll hopefully get my childhood back,
I will crack open you ribcage and ingest your fucking heart

I am the monster hiding under your bed, I am the shadow following every fucking step you take!

I am the monster hiding under your bed, I am the shadow
following every fucking step you take!
I am the son you never wanted and I'll make you regret it!

Fear thy neighbour, but fear me more!
