

The background of the image is a dark, swirling pattern of green and black. The green elements form thick, curved bands that spiral around a central point, creating a sense of motion and depth. The black areas fill the spaces between the green bands, making the overall effect look like a stylized, abstract representation of a celestial body or a dynamic, swirling mass.

SYMPHONIES OF SATURNUS

Signals

In
The
Beginning
There was the great one
The one who will be in the end
The galaxies conceal unlimited forces
More than the human mind could comprehend
For sure mankind knows less than it doesn't know
There is more darkness than light
More darkness than life
Being alive
Means nothing more than
Searching for the meaning of human existence
Searching
Hoping
Despairing
Making wars
Destroying
Dying for faith
For nothing
Though there is a purpose
Even a usage of life
More than life
Something has been waiting
It is coming closer
It is the one who will be in the end

ESP

Something is new Even not right
I'm moving on Dashing through the night
So many questions and still no answers
Thoughts decomposed into substances
And then I feel I am not free
Something takes part of me Perceiving ESP
Future and past I see Unleashed eternity
Locked in a twilight scene Perceiving ESP
I hear a sound A filtering vibe
Spectral visions Embracing my mind
A chill that can't be denied
Far beyond but yet inside
Memorizing sins Extinction of lies
I feel sick Reflecting my life
Seems like something has died
Instead new forces built in pride
ESP
Eternize the power of Saturn
Revealing commands of the dark perspective
That no one ever received before
And then I feel I am not free
Something takes part of me Perceiving ESP
Future and past I see Unleashed eternity
Locked in a twilight scene Perceiving ESP
I hear a sound A filtering vibe
Spectral visions Embracing my mind
A chill that can't be denied
Far beyond but yet inside
Memorizing sins Extinction of lies
I feel sick Reflecting my life
Seems like something has died
Instead new forces built in pride

Colossal Void

Dely Such an earthly desperation inside
Death-trip in my veins
In the end less than nothing remains
Desolation is a mortal syndrome
Under this intergalactic dome
Fly into a passion and into flinders
Volunteer and pioneer
Charges and restrictions
Wandering Colossal void
Raze the mental abyss
Disavow all faked factoids
Fragments once seen in a dream
Are glittering in front of me
A veil reigns supreme While the stars
Are dying down A vast hereafter
Keeps me still imprisoned worldwide
Bless my heart What a nothingness
Charges and restrictions
Wandering Colossal void
Raze the mental abyss
Disavow all faked factoids
Lost below zero Torn from under tow
I see the dawn of a new age
And a sphere as the ultimate
Reality or illusion How far have I come
Raising fears of an open end
Spread the vibes of my fall
Through the vortex of time
I'm getting out of control
I carry the weight of the world
And the burden of life
As darkness descends

Probe

A place so dark and deep that every sense is Forced to fail For too late to regret
 Collapsing state Just one left thought
 Reverberates Nothingness so pure
 Blackness could obliterate
 Grope and feel my way
 Or inside the black I stay
 There has to be an aim Asphyxiant lure
 Grope and feel my way
 Or inside the black I stay
 Getting closer to my aim Still insecure
 Bounded by obscurity Can't feel myself
 Lost in a lack of entity I will not wait
 A kind of total chaos or a system too regular Perfectly arranged havoc But it's more
 Restless Without destination
 Caught by the dark menace
 And the thoughts of mine Overwhelmed
 A black penetration Infiltrated by the haze
 Of an omniscient kind The omniscient might
 Try to choose a path Through intensity
 Reduced to the strength Of my own will Am I inside Or outside existence
 Is there any purpose Am I stuck eternally
 There is hope to find a glim A hint or sign
 In this total vacuousness Intuition leads me
 To a special source of power
 Never dared to assume
 I know I'm inside And outside existence
 Now sense is getting nearer
 Clear trace of the idea
 A force causes traction inside of my mind
 There is a direction I'm following
 Will leave the pure darkness
 I know where to go
 Through this nothingness
 Grope and feel my way

Alienate

Enter the surface again Released from the hostile
 Embrace Enter the surface again
 Released from the false environment
 Antagonised by the earthly days
 It reanimates me to delve on untrodden plains
 I plunge into the darkness And break these chains
 That bind As I leave this world behind
 I am on my way Passing the borders of decay
 Sober eyes face my scorn on mankind's demise
 Bewildered masses crawling blind beneath the light
 Entwined in lies Depraved forever
 Memories quite demolished The backwards sight
 Tends to be abolished It disappeared unnoticed
 Unable to stop and count
 My craven steps A high amount
 I am on my way Passing the borders of decay
 Sober eyes face my scorn on mankind's demise
 Bewildered masses crawling blind beneath the light
 Entwined in lies Depraved forever
 A total change Common sense got rearranged
 Understand less and more Need self-command
 The ancient sphere of lore I had to leave again
 Depraved forever Not anymore the one I've been Detecting several traits Unknown qualities
 Increasingly fragmented
 More a hybrid than just myself
 External segments of something else
 Which of these sides are really mine Which is my side
 The alterations forcing old habits to resign
 The difference Deliverance
 My defence will progress
 Transformed Replaced and unlike
 Still deviation intensifies
 Enter the surface again Enter uncertain terrains
 Go on Can't look back forever Strong enough
 Cause I am reborn Continue but never Mourn I won't look back forever

Aeonized

I've seen in endless dreams
 The truth behind your lies
 New powers start to grow
 From the depths of my existence
 Incapacitated being Blind lead the blind
 Aeonized Fuelled by hate I will rise to
 Revolutionize Break the chains to see your
 Web of lies Revoke your thoughts of a slave
 Aeonize Crush to create
 A new form of life
 Half alive Half something
 Emerging from my miserable self
 Am I right or am I wrong
 Fear compels my mind
 And drives me to despair
 I reach for you to use your mind
 And now I feel strength
 Growing inside of you
 But does it fit and will you see
 Aeonized Is the only way to be
 Let me grow wings
 To reach the soul
 Let me grow wings
 To surmount it all
 To reach the soul of the universe
 Aeonized Fuelled by hate I will rise to
 Revolutionize Break the chains to see your
 Web of lies Revoke your thoughts of a slave
 Aeonize Crush to create
 A new form of life

Aeons To Come

I feel the force grows
 Pervaded by my triumph
 Surrounded by supremacy
 Now I come to know
 I've come to free
 All the hate they feel
 As I look around
 So much more can be found
 I won't give in Until they begin
 Just to realize How trivial their lies are Mankind's existence
 Lasts only a fraction on the scale of time
 Imprisoned by its impressions
 Unable to explore the divine
 I've come to free
 All the hate they feel
 As I look around
 So much more can be found
 And I won't give in
 Until they begin
 Just to realize
 How trivial their lies are
 The view into thousands of lightyears
 Opens my mind to challenge all fears
 Through eerie portals now I've become
 A beholder of aeons to come
 Soul by soul unleashed
 Another individual's conceived
 A new breed will awake
 For the universe to take

Descent

I awake
 As the owner of my dreams
 But nothing's as it seems
 In this nightmare
 The shades of grey unite
 Because tonight's the night
 To close my eyes
 For the last time
 To rise in wise foresight
 What does really matter
 If you won't remember me
 Even the malice is gone
 Bittersweet solution
 Come and take a huge breath
 And breathe out
 Once I dwelled in confusion
 Of earthborn life
 Soon all questions
 Shall be answered
 The omnipresent might
 Will exceed all expectations
 Like a bolt from the blue
 It will renew my point of view
 Trust me as one
 Of a dying breed
 Don't cherish any further illusions
 The downward spiral
 Ends in absolution
 I'm on my way
 To break the seal
 Of pure reality
 Will the strongest survive
 Will future belong to me
 Countless obstacles
 And their final lesson
 That has to be told
 The journey is not the reward

Renaissance

No return Consent makes me rise Burst to antagonise
 Discovered failed systems I have to refuse
 An enormous variety of human truth
 The painful incident of my terrestrial end
 Is my release from a span without each sense
 Source of wisdom Creates me once again
 The immensity exceeds Force of progression
 Giving me birth again Into the infinite I stream
 Now that I finally cope with my last defeat
 I enter the spheres of total delete
 I will surmount just to rise Break with the sufferings
 Of my old life My mortal strife
 And soon I'm losing my shape Keep merging into My way Fusion no longer awaits Getting carried away
 With space My mortal strife passes by Absorbed into knowledge I face reality
 At the zenith of the efforts which built me
 Forwards Must keep on venturing forwards
 Keep on roaming like a spectral nomad
 Source of wisdom Creates me once again
 The immensity exceeds Force of progression
 Giving me birth again Into the infinite I stream
 Contractions around me blow me out Split me out
 Of what I've been I'm the progeny Of the cosmic-kin
 Born again for the mightiest task
 There is the one and only insight
 Induce the changes with a blast I will destabilize
 Taught by knowledge of eternities
 Consent makes me rise Growing stronger
 It makes me feel Immortalized
 Becoming more embraced by the non-divine
 Yet able to see the context by my new-formed mind
 The influence continues touching my spirit
 I'm crushing into solution without limit
 Source of wisdom Creating me once again
 The immensity exceeds Force of progression
 Giving me birth again Into the infinite I stream

The Order Of Equilibrium

Set forth to realize Domain of lies passed by Overcame deceit Soundness will abide
 Poise of energies Suffer 'til symmetry's
 Getting more equal by Courage to agonize
 The avoidance leads To failure of one's deeds
 Prevaricating being Could never conceive
 Distinction through creed Lose or succeed
 All the efforts divide There is no compromise
 Time has come to make one thing clear
 The last stand of the order is near
 Responsibility
 Persistency
 Restrict ductility
 Control blocks fear
 No hypocrisy
 Special security
 Of true maturity
 Negative eternally
 Every period increases my might
 Under the spell of Saturn's light
 Severe discipline is leading my way
 To the judgement of the saviour's reign
 Total balance arcane The principle of pain
 The single way to face Truth and wisdom gains
 When conscience is clear Honest and sincere
 The assigned demise Blessed without disguise
 Responsibility
 Persistency
 Restrict ductility
 Control blocks fear
 No hypocrisy
 Alien security
 Of true maturity
 Eternal negativity
 This is the order of equilibrium

Symphonies Of Saturnus Part I
The Inheritance

The passage now ends I've travelled so far
Come to reach this distant state
I found my entry to a new kind of life
The access my fate became
I could never expect what I learned and saw
What in fact being is about
Senselessness by the point of origin
Lost worthless human doubts
I had a choice and I used it
For the first and the final time
Accepted my change and I used it
To transfer to the other side
Let the worlds divide
I lost my mask to face the task
Guided by the might I feel
Time of harvest Deeds define
Black energies and mind unite
I'll continue indefinitely
Enlightened by darkness
Crossing fields again
I came to break new grounds
Connectivities got so transparent
Never silence was so loud
Fulfilled by wealth of the ancient wisdom
Moving on my path
I know I hear I see the truth
That was hidden behind so far
I had a choice and I used it
For the first and the final time
Accepted my change and I used it
Let the worlds divide
As two worlds collided
As the worlds divided
A being aeonized
Has to crush one side

Symphonies Of Saturnus Part II
The Proof

Gratitude expressed by silence
Solitude lasts just for a while as
The prelude of a new time Still growing on
To become sublime Fulfilled with thankfulness
No word can say Skilled by blackness so glorious Against all bitterness I go
On and on I go Marching on cause I know
The darkest might included me
The darkest force enlightens my way
Rose from below Bear this burden, so much I owe Incur deep liability Accept responsibility
So black and bright Nothing else can stand its pride
Absolute wisdom and dignity All ideological liberty
Far beyond the lie No dimensions define the size
Though I shall not kneel eternally I know
I have to deal with this burning I feel
Since I've turned those horrors revealed
Black skies induced the great change of the unreal
On and on I blast Moving on Moving fast
The darkest might's fulfilling me
Without remorse I'm clearing my way
Act upon the vast Maybe the first For sure the last
Abolished all fatal fragility
Demolished with hate and hostility
Differentiate but aware nothing's to save
Devastate Release atrocity
Knowledge will infiltrate the misery
Warefare of the wise Weapons to extricate the mind
So my enslaving strategy Of my mind
Mind can entail purest liberty
I have never destroyed physically
Follow the praised alliance The blackest property
Accomplish what has begun In quest for what I'll become
I welcome my fate The faithful performance of my duty
Await the ultimate

Symphonies Of Saturnus Part III
The Synthesis

Float Gonna grow As time gets overthrown
Respect instead of the warfields of liar
Wise impact extincted what's no more required
Lost mortal protection All fleshly remains
Terrestrial elements exuding to gain
Still sight widens Constraints disappear
New scope will abide Understand every sphere
Between remote locations A point of aggregation
Unleashed clouds of darkest waves Keep the collision course
The conversion source Astrobiological non-organic cell
Neither form nor shape nor lack Energies of black
Pure constructive moments Immediately occur
Without physical limitations Creation of the first
Lightstorm of force accumulates A being of might no longer awaits
Until darkness unfolds new fate I start to procreate
I stop to desecrate I start to procreate The great Triumphant Earthly life's end Cosmic evidence Made me comprehend
My influences get More intense Independent Phenomena
Space expands Time extends Alive and prominent Black existence
The opponent Confronting sense Dark intelligence
I am matter Black matter All matter
With blinded eyes wide open It was overwhelming me
Gave what Saturnus brought Fought what Saturnus fought
Since great disillusion came I'm deeply hateful
This last fusion was the aim Feel deeply grateful
With universe wide open I'm what Saturnus sought Do what Saturnus taught Structureless giant The giant will gain Extrahuman Intergalactical might Seceded and transformed to supernatural height Arise
All sorts of consciousness confer Unify my strength
Without shape that fades Without plural ways
Without virtual decay Entity of grace
Without local state Without pursuit in vain Without intention to stay
Perfecting the absolute source From far distance now blackness reformed
An odd product of wisdom reborn Empowered to absolute force
The descendant of darkness reformed An odd product of pure might reborn
Supremacy
